Fine-focus adjustment

Description

The Dino-Lite RK-06A stand is a sturdy and stable mid-range stand solution that can be used with all Dino-Lite digital microscopes. It is constructed of stainless steel and lightweight aluminum and offers precise fine-focus adjustment as well as a quick vertical release function.

Its adjustable horizontal arm has a 15cm range with 360-degree rotation and with the RK-10-EX arm (included) its effective range can be extended to observe larger objects. Various optional accessories are available for the RK-06A, such as the RK-10-FX flexible arm or the RK-10-PX, XY arm. With these features, the RK-06A is the ideal mid-range stand solution for precise orientation and maximum flexibility.
